Tuition must be paid in advance; participant is considered registered only upon full payment and receipt of completed registration form.

Release and Permissions

In case of accident or serious illness, I request that I/we be contacted. I give permission for emergency medical treatment and to be transferred to the nearest medical facility. I agree to assume all costs related to such treatment and I release the Dairy Barn from any responsibility for injury or illness that may occur while my child participates. I also give permission for my child to participate in The Dairy Barn Summer Art Camp.

Photography Release

The Dairy Barn respects your parental rights! We love Camp publicity, but we understand not all parents are comfortable having their children's photos published. Photographs may be taken by Dairy Barn staff and used on the Dairy Barn website, Facebook page, or in teachers personal portfolios or personal social media pages, or photos may also be taken by local new media and used in newspapers and on their websites.

Please check here _____ if you DO NOT wish your child to be photographed for press and publicity.

Please Check Here _____ if we have your permission to use images of your camper and sign here: _____

Parent and Camper Acknowledgement (After Reading Handbook)

By signing this acknowledgement, I state that I have thoroughly read and understand my duties and responsibilities as outlined in Summer Camp 2017 Parent/Camper Handbook. I understand that I will be held to these rules and guidelines and will be charged additionally if I fail to adhere to camp pick-up times clearly stated in this handbook. I understand that my child will be held to the Full Value Contract and will be expected to show good behavior and respect for all instructors, assistants and other campers. My child may be terminated from camp if there are severe behavior and respect issues that consequences and counseling do not resolve. I may receive a partial refund if this is the case at the discretion of the Education Director.
