

This summer, the ZMA proudly presents an exhibition exploring large-scale contemporary quilts by artist Elizabeth Brandt. Her mural-size, machine-stitched works, which will be exhibited alongside smaller studies, illustrate the balance struck between dynamic forms and bold colors. Brandt's quilt career began in 2007 when she was inspired by a book written by Ohio quilt artist Nancy Crow.

Crazy Quilt Crawl 2017

Begins at The Dairy Barn Arts Center with Quilt National '17, The Best of Contemporary Quilts and continues throughout Athens, Nelsonville and Southeast Ohio. Along the crawl you will enjoy quilts old and new, contemporary and traditional, as well as locally crafted food and beverages named exclusively for this special occasion. We will be sharing additional information about quilt exhibits, events, and workshops throughout the summer at www.dairybarn.org.

Quilt National

Created in 1979 to demonstrate the transformations taking place in the world of contemporary quilting by expanding the definition of quilting beyond traditional parameters, and to promote quilt making as an art form. Quilt National continues to utilize the newest materials and technologies.

The Dairy Barn Arts Center
 Located in the beautiful Appalachian foothills, the Dairy Barn Arts Center is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Since its inception in 1978, The Dairy Barn has evolved into a first-class arts center with 10,000 square feet of exhibition and classroom space that supports and encourages the work of artists and community participation in the arts. It has become internationally known for the biennial exhibition Quilt National. The newly renovated facility has fiber arts, ceramic and digital studios, as well as an expanded gallery shop filled with local and exhibiting artists work for purchase.

Follow the Southeast Ohio Ceramic Trail this fall and visit over 35 venues throughout our region. The trail will start at The Dairy Barn Arts Center with Contemporary Ceramics 2017, curated by Brad Schwieger featuring 30 national ceramic artists.
