

Materials list for Beginning Painting with Erica Magnus

PAINTING WITH OILS AND ACRYLICS

Please Note: During the first class session, students will see a series of demonstrations and have the opportunity to sample each medium. The paints and materials for this will be provided by the Dairy Barn. However for the second session and beyond, participants will need to come to class with their own materials.

Participants who already have oil and/or acrylics paintings supplies please bring one or both along with the painting supplies listed.

You will all need to bring a minimum of 3 basic paints to each class

- Ultramarine Blue
- Alizarin Crimson
- Yellow Ochre

What is included for use during class time:

- Table easels, drawing benches some standing easels
- Some containers for oil and acrylic paints
- Some cleanup supplies
- Limited Dairy Barn painting supplies and tools

Required:

- 1 pre-stretched canvas 11" x 14"
- 4 canvas boards 8" x 10" (smaller is fine)
- 3 bristle brushes
 - Flat, Bright, Filbert, (your favorite type or one of each as you choose)
 - Sizes # 4, 8, 10, (or 12)
- 1 palette knife (metal)
- Odorless turpentine or turpenoid for oil paints
- Paints (same colors for both oil and acrylic)*
 - Titanium White
 - Cadmium Yellow Pale (or Light)
 - Cadmium Yellow Medium
 - Cadmium Red Light
 - Yellow Ochre
 - Burnt Sienna
 - Ultramarine Blue
 - Cerulean Blue Hue (or Thalo Blue)
 - Viridian (or Thalo Green)
 - Alizarin Crimson
- If you have/buy a set of 10 or more paints you have what you need, even if they include different colors.
- We will not be using oil (ie linseed oil) or acrylic mediums (ie gloss matte) for the first few classes

Recommended:

- A painting shirt or smock (one you don't mind getting stained)
- Painting gloves if you wish
- Rags