ABOUT QUILT NATIONAL '23

The Dairy Barn Arts Center in Athens, Ohio offers Quilt National '23, some of the best contemporary fine art quilts from around the world. For over 40 years this show has consistently displayed new forms of experimentation and development in fabric art, extending the definition of the 'quilt'. This is the exhibition that helped to legitimize quilts as fine art.

Today quilters choose traditional and non-traditional materials and use forms other than the standard rectangular shape. They still hold respect for time-honored quilt methods of piecing and patchwork while challenging the boundaries by creating based on artistic intent.

In every exhibition, it is exciting to see how the artists reflect what is important in their world and beyond. Many of the quilts have the themes of Covid life, diversity, equality, justice, environmental, and social concerns. Some are thought-provoking, while others are purely artistic color studies and abstract designs. Quilt National '23 was juried by Dr. Carolyn L. Mazloomi, Chiaki Dosho, and Irene L. Roderick. Now with its twenty-third biennial exhibition, The Dairy Barn Arts Center offers Quilt National '23 to you.
